

Do you know someone who needs a fresh start?

Help them start their next chapter today.

All of us need second chances sometimes.

Do you know someone who is between 18 and 24, who dropped out of school or has been involved with the criminal justice system, Goodwill® can help?

Goodwill's LifeLaunch: Ignite program helps young people get a second chance and gain the skills needed to earn a good job. When you refer someone to the program, they can get free employment training and job placement help in areas of manufacturing, materials handling, machine operation, mechatronics, or welding.

Plus, Goodwill provides a host of services that will help meet their unique needs both personally and professionally, including mental health counseling, substance abuse counseling, housing, clothing, transportation, nutrition, child care, and legal services.

Let Goodwill help them on the path to a bright future!

Goodwill® LifeLaunch: Ignite Reentry Program

The Goodwill® LifeLaunch: Ignite Reentry Program is made possible with a $4.5 million grant award, covering 93 percent of operating costs, from the U.S. Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration. Goodwill is contributing leveraged funding valued at $324,762 to cover the remaining 7 percent of operational costs.
